St. James's, May 4.

THE following Addreſs has been preſented to His Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs from the Towns of Anſtruther Eaſter and Anſtruther Weſter. Preſented to His Majeſty by Colonel Philip Anſtruther, their Repreſentative in Parliament; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, One of His Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State.

Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Vienna, April 29. On the 19th Inſtant the Count du Luc, Ambaſſadour of France, made his publick Entry here, which was not near ſo magnificent as that of the Venetian Ambaſſadours: His Livery was not ſplendid, he had but 4 Coaches with 6 Horſes, 2 Doorkeepers on Horſeback, 10 Pages, and 28 Footmen. On the 20th he had his Audience of the Emperour in Mourning. His Audiences of the three Empreſſes are delayed till the Empreſs Conſort leave Childbed. On Occaſion of the Archduke's Birth the Emperour has made ſeveral Promotions: Count Collinitz, Biſhop of Waizen in Hungary, is declared Biſhop of Vienna, and his former Biſhoprick is given to Count Leſlie. There have alſo been created ſeveral Grandees of Spain, Chamberlains and Privy Counſellours. Directions are given for the forming of 9 different Camps in Hungary, betwixt the 10th and 20th of next Month, till the great Army aſſembles; and all the General Officers are ordered to be at their reſpective Camps within that time. The principal Camp is to be at Futach near Peterwaradin; and they are all ſo diſpoſed, that they may ſoon be drawn together. The Empreſs Conſort, and the Archduke continue very well. On the 26th Inſtant the Univerſity of Vienna had a publick Audience of the Emperour, to make their Congratulation upon the Birth of the Archduke; to which the Emperour returned an Anſwer in Latin. That Afternoon Prince Eugene of Savoy took a Review of 10 Companies of the Regiment of Lorrain, which afterwards purſued their Journey to Hungary. The laſt Letters from Peterwaradin ſay all is quiet on the Turkiſh Frontiers.

Ratisbon, April 30. The Dyet was aſſembled Yeſterday on the Emperour's Demand of an Aid againſt the Turks; but tho' the States will doubtleſs comply with it, for which ſeveral are already inſtructed, no Reſolution is yet taken in Form. The Preparations in Hungary are carrying on, and the new Levies made in the Empire paſs frequently by this Place down the Danube: The Rupture however is ſtill uncertain, till the Return of the Courier laſt ſent to M. Fleiſchman.

Dantzick, May 2. The Czar being recovered of his Indiſpoſition, was preſent on the 29th paſt at a great Entertainment given by the King of Poland to the Duke and Dutcheſs of Mecklenbourg. On the 30th his Czariſh Majeſty ſet out for Koningsberg. The King of Poland having appointed the Biſhop of Cujavia and Field-Marſhal Flemming to be his Plenipotentiaries, they are to go to Jaroſlau the Middle of this Month, in order to concert with the Deputies of the confederated Poles, the neceſſary Meaſures for holding a General Dyet at Warſaw the 15th of June.

Copenhagen, May 5 On the 1ſt Inſtant Rear-Admiral Kaas put to Sea with 6 Men of War and 2 Frigates, to fetch the reſt of the Flotilla from Pomerania, and ſecure them from ſome Swediſh Men of War which have appeared near Bornholm. Letters which came in Yeſterday from Norway give an Account, that a Detachment of about 900 of the Swedes had been attacked at Moſs the 28th of laſt Month, by Detachments of the Garriſons of Friderickſtadt and Fredericks-Hall, joyned by about 1000 Peaſants, and was diſlodged from thence with the Loſs of 300 Men killed, and as many made Priſoners, among the latter Colonel Falckenberg, who died of his Wounds the Day after. This Action is the more advantagious to the Danes, becauſe the Enemy's Magazine of Proviſions was at Moſs. Theſe Letters add, that the Swedes ſuffered by the Peaſants of Norway, who were drawing together from all Parts of that Kingdom, and put to the Sword all that fell into their Hands.

Aberdeen, April 28. Laſt Night Lieutenant-General Cadogan arrived here from Inverneſs. He has received a Letter from Colonel Clayton, dated the 22d Inſtant, giving an Account that all the Rebels in the Iſle of Skie had ſubmitted to Mercy, and delivered up their Arms; and that Colonel Cholmeley was to ſail on the 25th with his Detachment, for the other Iſlands; where the Rebels deſigned to make the like Submiſſion. Sir Donald Macdonald has ſurrendred, and is to be ſent to Fort-William.
